

Pumpkin Varieties

Fall/ Decorative / Edible

Fall / Decorative		Black Bear Unique dark green color that is almost black. This variety is a true pumpkin with great stems that arch and is perfect for decorating. It is small and flat in shape.
Fall / Decorative		Blaze Small and flashy. Short, flattened round shape with shallow ridging. These orange and yellow striped pumpkins are great to decorate with.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Carving - Jack O' Lantern The classic fall pumpkin. These pumpkins can be used in soups, casseroles, and other dishes but are the most popular pumpkin for carving and displaying, and of course, roasted pumpkin seeds.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Cinderella – Rouge vif d'Estampes Named after its resemblance to Cinderella's carriage. Orange / Red in color, flattened shape with deep ribs. Has a sweet flavor and creamy texture, making it ideal for fall baking. Popular in fall displays.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Cushaw A crookneck squash with green and white striped skin. Flesh is light yellow and has a slightly sweet taste. Meaty in texture, this squash can be cooked in savory or sweet dishes. Adds variety to any fall display.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Dill's Atlantic Giant World's largest pumpkin variety! Huge in size and pink to orange in color. Grown mostly for competition. Always a favorite with kids and in large fall displays.
Fall / Decorative		Flat Stacker A more uniform and productive update on the classic Flat White pumpkin. A perfect complement to other flat pumpkin varieties.
Fall / Decorative		Grizzly Bear Sure to be a favorite. Warty fruit with an appealing dark caramel coloring. Produces a very hard shell so stores amazingly well. A unique pumpkin to add to your holiday decorations.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Jarrahdale This blue/green pumpkin is very decorative but edible as well. Great for cooking in soups, stews, and in pies. Shape is somewhat flat with ribbing and a thick stem. Beautiful orange flesh that is tasty and stores well for a long time after the holidays.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Kakai Orange pumpkin that has dark green stripes. Generally reaching 5-8lbs in size, these pumpkins are eye catching in displays. Has dark green hull less seeds that are great for roasting.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Knucklehead - Warty This pumpkin is orange, warty and weird. Adds great character to any fall display or jack o lantern. Can be prepared and cooked in any squash recipe.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Long Island Cheese Popular and named after its resemblance to a cheese wheel. Light color in caramel. This pumpkin can be cooked every way you can think of; baked, roasted, boiled, steamed, even battered and deep fried! It has also been used in brewing fall beers.

Fall / Decorative / Edible		Marina Di Chioggia Popular squash in Italy for centuries. This pumpkin has grayish-blue/green warty skin. Adds fun color and texture to your fall display. Can be used in any recipe that calls for squash, even baking.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Mellow Yellow Something new and different in a pumpkin. Uniform in shape, bright yellow color, and holds well. Great in pumpkin displays for a pop of color. This yellow pumpkin is edible as well. Flesh is a little stringy like spaghetti squash but is still flavorful.
Fall / Decorative		Mini Pumpkins – Decorative An assortment of cute, tiny pumpkins used in Fall décor and tabletop displays. They are flat and round in shape and come in a variety of colors including orange, white and yellow striped.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Naples Long An Italian squash that is large and peanut shaped, these pumpkins weigh in at 20-50lbs! Has deep green skin with a bright orange flesh that is rich and sweet in flavor. Adds variety and character to any fall display.
Fall / Decorative		Peanut Pumpkin - Galeux d’ Eysines Also known as the peanut pumpkin. This heirloom pumpkin has a lovely salmon colored skin covered with sugar swelling “peanut” like warts.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Porcelain Doll A pink pumpkin! Blocky in size and deeply ribbed weighing approximately 16-24 lbs. Flesh is sweet and can be used for pies, soups, and other gourmet fall delights. Adds a whimsy appearance to fall displays.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Silver Edged Pumpkins This unique, heirloom Mexican Pumpkin is grown primarily for its gorgeous, green streaked white fruits and its huge, striking seeds, which are white with a thick silver edge. The small to medium sized pumpkins are highly ornamental in autumn displays. Roast the seeds for a delicious snack, or hull and grind them for a traditional green papain sauce.
Fall / Decorative		Stripe - Decorative Small and flashy. Short, flattened round shape with shallow ridging. These white and orange striped pumpkins are great to decorate with.
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Sugar Pie No surprise, as its name is a yummy giveaway, the sugar pie pumpkin is the very best choice for optimum pumpkin flavor. Smooth textured, this prize pumpkin is one of the very sweetest, if not THE sweetest. Just plain delicious!
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Turkish Hat – Turban squash Striking bright orange, trimmed in a dark ivy green color. At its blossom end is a turban-like cap, thus its name. Very ornamental; can measure 10 to 15 inches in diameter and even larger. Fine-textured orange flesh can vary from mild to sweet.
Fall / Decorative		Wee-B-Little - Decorative Bright orange, tiny, baseball size pumpkins. A favorite in fall displays, especially for smaller children. Perfect for fall craft projects! These mini pumpkins can be hollowed out and baked to use as serving bowls for your fall recipes, savory or sweet!
Fall / Decorative / Edible		White – Multiple Varieties Also known as Casperita, Ghost, Moonshine, Polar Bear, or Snowball pumpkins. Increasingly popular in fall displays. Available in multiple varieties and sizes, since the inside is a familiar orange color these pumpkins are great in your fall recipes as well!
Fall / Decorative / Edible		Winter Luxury – Sugar Pie This small pumpkin has a unique netted skin giving fall displays a whimsical look. It’s sweet flavor and velvety texture makes this pumpkin great for pies and all your other fall baking.